Re: EDWIN SWALLOW, INMATE

Dear Mr. Weber:

Enclosed please find a letter that I received from Wendy, daughter and sister of the homicide victims in the criminal case involving Mr. Swallow. I thought it best to forward this directly to you. Wendy is requesting a response, and if Mr. Swallow does respond, he could send a letter through my office. She does not want him to know her complete name or her address.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or comments about this. My telephone number is (605) 394-5846. Thank you very much for your consideration of my request.

Sincerely,

Sharon Kallemeyn

Swallow's response (4-14-99)

He did not choose to respond at this time. He said perhaps in a year or 2. He felt bad that it happened and said Wendy seemed like a nice girl. He just could not write her at this time. Bonnie Larsen

Dear Mr. Swallow + Mr. Wadell -

First I'll tell you who I am. My name is Wendy. I am the youngest in my family. Connie Wilson was my dad and Cindy was my only sister.

I remember April 8th 1982 like it was yesterday. Since that day or should I say that night my life hasn't been the same. Although for a very long time I couldn't remember anything before that night. And to be honest I don't ~~remember~~ remember too much. Except for things people tell me.

But I do remember all of the feelings I felt and how much I loved my Dad and my sister.

I want you to know how much I've hurt and ~~that~~ ~~that~~ maybe try to understand that because of your's and two other people's actions I've payed each + everyday. There isn't a day that goes by that I don't miss them or wonder what if - But I've realized that what if will never be.

Because of your actions ~~I~~^I had to grow up real quick. 16 years is a long time but the hurt is still as strong as it was then. I'm not as angry as I used to be. I realized the anger only hurt me - I had to let go & let god. I've tried to kill myself more than once. And I guess I thought I'd go to heaven and see them - I'm thankful I never succeeded -

My Dad wasn't a bad man he just made some real stupid choices. And my sister well at 17 yrs old she was sweet very pretty and a very caring person. She was everything I wish I was - I'm thank-ful to of had her in my life but I ~~guess~~ guess I feel ~~robbed~~ robbed.

I don't feel you had the right to take her she didn't do anything except love my dad enough to live with him. But I guess you did do one thing. She asked me about 2 mths before she ~~died~~^{died} how I would feel if Dad died. I told her I'll be hurt.

She told me she wanted to die with him. I guess I never realized it would come true. Or how soon it would. I've heard said people know when their going to die.

I don't know if you'll respect me enough to answer my questions or if I'll even be able to except your answer's but I want and hope you understand why I've done this. And if you don't do this please know that there's a young lady who misses her dad so much and her sister to, and your the only one's who can help her close the book that you opened. Also I can't set them free (their souls) with out some kind of explanation.

I'd like to know why?

And

Are you even sorry?
Did you even look back and Did you realize that the girl was only 17 yrs — And the man was only 42. Also did you realize that you made the choice to be my dad judge jury convictor & executioner. And over the years have you even thought of the victims?
